About SwitchSaveSmile

SwitchSaveSmile, a brand of YOURMARKETINGMATEAU (ABN: 23 358 302 543) is committed to helping Australians save money on everyday bills through comparison and switching services. We do this by connecting users with trusted third-party providers and advertising networks who collect information directly from consumers, always with the appropriate consent.

We do not collect, store, or process personal information ourselves.

How Information Is Collected

SwitchSaveSmile does not collect or manage any personal information from users. Instead, we work with reputable third-party networks who may collect information via their own platforms (such as survey sites, lead forms, or promotions). These partners are responsible for ensuring that all data is collected lawfully, transparently, and with user consent.

How Data Is Used

Any personal information collected by our third-party partners may be used for:

- Connecting users with offers such as comparison or switching services (e.g. energy, insurance, or broadband)
- Providing quotes or service recommendations
- Marketing or promotional offers (with consent)

SwitchSaveSmile only receives non-identifiable or aggregated data for performance tracking and campaign optimisation.

Cookies and Third-Party Tracking

Some of our advertising partners may use cookies or similar technologies on their websites to improve user experiences and deliver more relevant advertising. Please refer to the privacy policies of those third-party sites for details.

Opting Out

If you wish to unsubscribe or withdraw consent, you will need to do so through the platform or provider where your information was originally submitted.

If you're unsure who collected your data, contact us at the details below and we'll help direct your query.

Security and Third-Party Responsibility

We carefully select the partners we work with to ensure they meet high standards of data protection. However, we are not responsible for how third-party networks handle or secure the personal information they collect.

We recommend reviewing the privacy policies of any third-party sites you interact with via SwitchSaveSmile promotions or links.

Policy Updates

This policy may be updated periodically. The most recent version will always be published on our website.
